

Ian Clarke

Board Member, Independent Advisory Board

Ian is a corporate law expert with relevant experience in corporate financial governance. Worked previously in Papua New Guinea as part of a successful law firm with expertise in company law. Ian is a member of the Australian-PNG Business Council and has served on the Australia-Pacific Islands Business Council. Ian has extensive experience and knowledge of the legal framework for companies and businesses operating in the Pacific. Ian has a particular interest in utilizing the digital revolution to overcome geography challenges for trade in the Pacific.