

Michelle Macdonald

Board Member, Independent Advisory Board

Michelle comes from Samoa's private sector. With her current role as BAT Samoa's Country Manager, she has a strong understanding of issues facing the manufacturing sector and in market access for trade across and outside of the Pacific. Michelle brings to the Board her very relevant company experience, as well as experience from her work serving on national boards such as the National Provident Fund, and the Samoa Chamber of Commerce.